++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:

Becoming cloudy overnight, sunshine developing during Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:

Any isolated showers dying away. Some evening sunny spells, but any overnight clear spells gradually replaced by cloudier conditions moving in from the north, with some light rain in places later. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Wednesday:

Cloud and patchy rain should gradually clear southwards, leaving a dry day with sunny spells and light winds. Feeling colder than Tuesday, although this offset somewhat by the warm sunshine. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:

Dry with variable cloud cover and light winds throughout. Cold overnight with frosts, although it will feel warm in sunny spells by day. Some brief early fog patches are possible.
